

Getting started with ShowingTime as a home owner

← Getting Started

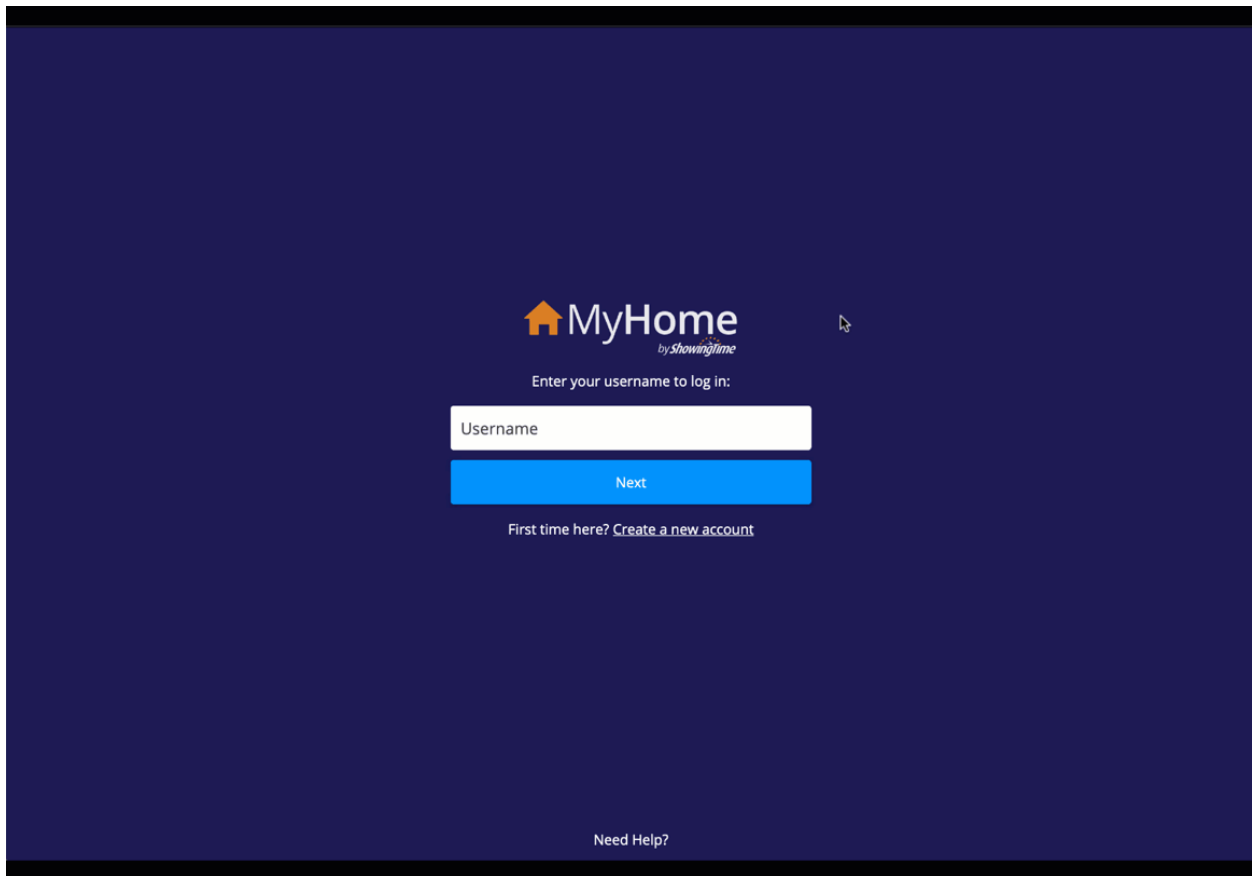

Gaining access to ShowingTime via My Home by ShowingTime will equip you to streamline the showing appointment scheduling and showing feedback process to improve efficiency.

- Enables you to optionally download an app to confirm showings and view feedback
- Manage your profile, settings, and preferences
- Review appointments and share them with family members
- ...and more

To Create Your Account

Navigate to <https://myhome.show/>

You will need to enter your email address. Your listing agent will also need to add this email address to your listing on their side.

(click image above to enlarge)

Step 1

Click Create a New Account.

Step 2

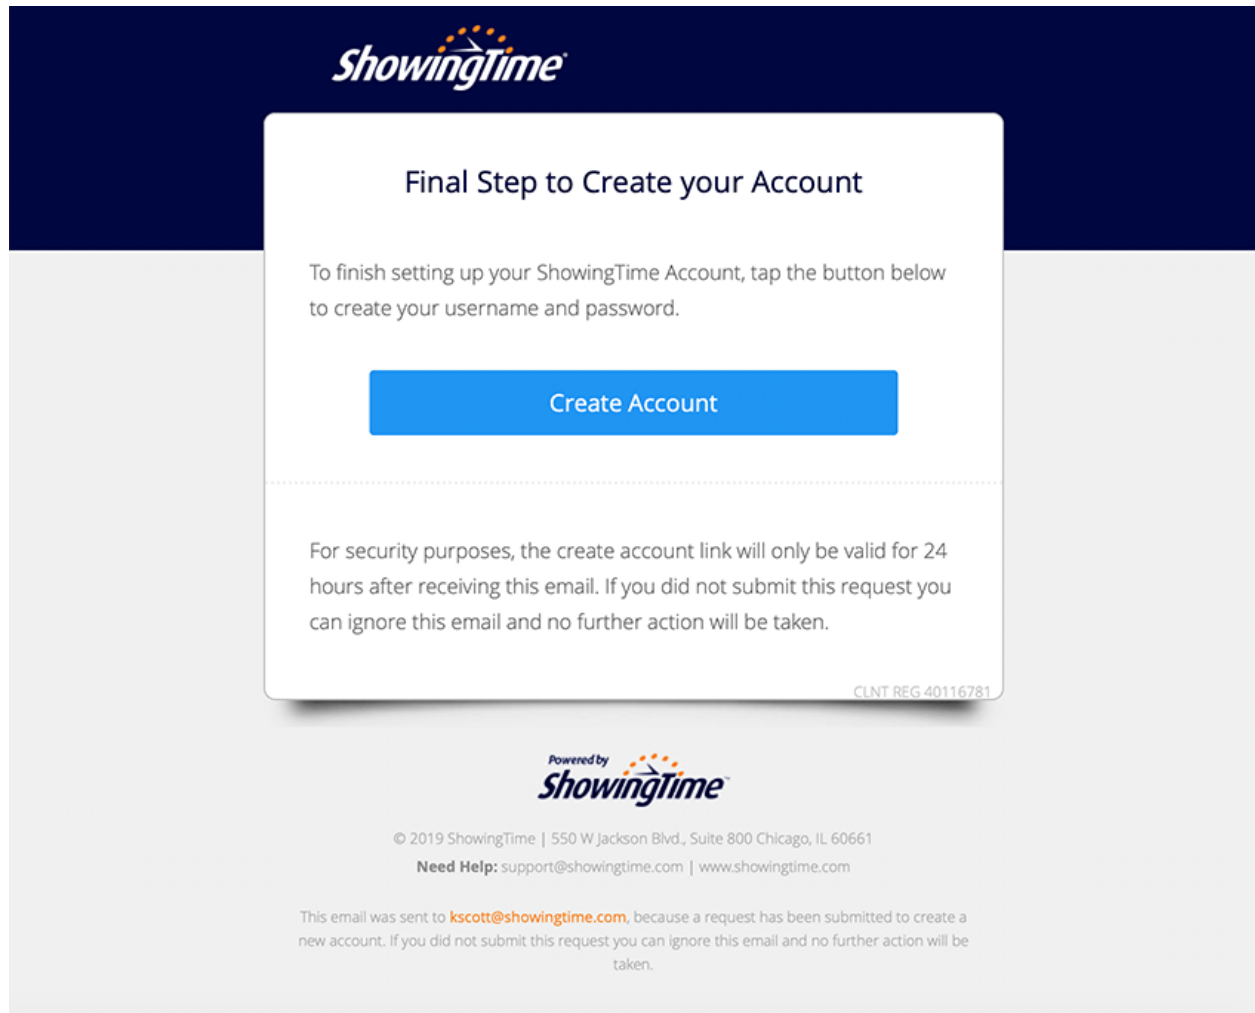

Enter your email address and press next.

Step 3

Make sure the email matches the one you provided to your agent in order to automatically match you with your listing.

Step 4

Check your email to follow the next step.

Once your agent completes their part you will see your listing(s) in the app.

If you have not received your email yet, please double check your spam or junk folders